

Blessing at the Torah

To be said by a parent who is not Jewish

For a daughter:

O God of all humanity

We lift our voices in gratitude for the Torah and the ideals it teaches: justice; compassion and devotion.

We are so blessed to see this day when our daughter takes her place among the people of Israel. We pray that she will do so with pride and joy.

For a son:

O God of all humanity

We lift our voices in gratitude for the Torah and the ideals it teaches: justice; compassion and devotion.

We are so blessed to see this day when our son takes his place among the people of Israel. We pray that he will do so with pride and joy.
